

Log everything for production monitoring and debugging Weave automatically logs all inputs, outputs, code, and metadata in your application at a granular level, organizing the data so you can easily ...

Whether you need active safety controls (guardrails) or passive quality monitoring, this guide will show you how to implement robust evaluation systems for your LLM applications.

Configure environment variables Monitoring and usage Track user activity with audit logs Use Prometheus monitoring Configure Slack alerts View organization activity Resources

Use W& B audit logs to track user activity within your organization and to conform to your enterprise governance requirements. Audit logs are available in JSON format. Refer to Audit log schema. How ...

Effective LLM monitoring tools will track token usage and estimated API costs per call, alerting you if usage unexpectedly spikes. W& B Weave, for example, automatically calculates token ...

We will explore common problems like hallucinations and prompt injection, distinguish observability from standard monitoring, and discuss the key challenges in debugging LLM systems.

W& B Weave is an observability and evaluation platform that helps you track, evaluate, and improve your LLM application. With Weave, you can: Observe and debug your LLM application Evaluate your ...

This comprehensive system enables better monitoring, debugging, and iterative development of AI-powered applications, allowing you to "track insights between commits."

Online evaluations Score live incoming production traces for monitoring without impacting performance Agents Observability and governance tools for agentic systems Build state-of-the-art agents ...

This custom dashboard extends Weave's native Traces view, allowing for tailored monitoring of LLM applications in production. If you're interested in viewing a more complex dashboard, check out a ...

Web: <https://williamsandcopaintcontractors.co.za>